Equality, Justice and Harmony

We fight for Equality among gender, Justice to all and Family Harmony

Summary: This Paper highlights the tactics used by vested interest stake holders and well-wishers of Feminists to silence the truth when they are exposed. This paper specifically demonstrate how SSRN (Social Science Research Network) handled the articles written and published and then on a flimsy accusation deleted them to hide the truth.

Total 13 Papers were written by the Author and six of them were peer reviewed and accepted for publication. Most of the papers were liked and downloaded many times making them the TOP 10 articles within 60 days. However, this instigated the Feminists to take it down from the site at any cost.

Key Findings: All of these papers were related to Men's Issues, and their struggle in this biased world. This incident has made it clear that there is no scope for men, and they cannot even publish the real facts with evidence as it affects the vested interest of the Feminists.

Methodology: Information for this report is sourced from SSRN (Social Science Research Network), various secondary sources, and various news publications, testimonies, survey statistics, etc.

Introduction: It is the mostly Men who are against Men. It is the Men law makers who make laws against men which are favoring women. It is the Male judges who give biased Judgments with harsh punishment to men and being lenient to women for a similar Crime. There are no Studies on Men addressing the following questions: Why men commit suicide? How men are harassed? How legal terrorism is impacting their health? How do they suffer in silence? Why do they suffer in silence? How stressful life they lead, when they face abuse and humiliation at the hands of their beloved ones. So we at MyNation utilized the free time during Covid, collecting supporting material pertaining to such issues and wrote some articles on subjects relating to men. These study articles/reports/Papers were based on reviews of literature obtained from legal journals, medical journals, main stream media articles, NCRB and references from other study reports and published on SSRN from August 2020 onwards. Total of 14 Papers were submitted and out of 14, only 7 were peer reviewed and accepted for publication by SSRN.

Message:

Dear Rudolph D'Souza,

After further review of your papers on SSRN and due to baseless inflammatory rhetoric, we are removing all of your papers from the site.

If you choose to resubmit or upload any future submissions they must be free of inflammatory rhetoric and properly cited to avoid unsubstantiated conclusions.

With a message

After further review of your papers on SSRN and due to baseless inflammatory rhetoric, we are removing all of your papers from the site.

So I sent reply as below

Dear _____ Sir _____ / _____ Madam

I received your email stating that you have removed all my articles from your journal. In your justification for removing my articles, you have mentioned that my articles contain inflammatory rhetoric and unsubstantiated conclusions. You have also mentioned that I did not cite my conclusions and data properly.

I hereby raise strong objections for the removal of my articles which are already verified, published and in this regards I would like to ask you some questions from you:

1. Can you please provide 2 or 3 examples from my articles where you have found the substance of inflammatory statements.
2. All the data and facts given to my articles are properly cited and are based on data published by government agencies and a well-credible sources. Please can you provide 2 or 3 examples from my articles where such data is _____ not _____ cited _____ properly.
3. It is shocking to me that I was not given any opportunity to provide proper objections/justifications before

After responding it has been many days now and there is no reply from SSRN, that shows that they do not have words to justify their move which is totally unethical for such an Organization.

As SSRN removed our articles on their website, but at the same time we replicated same Articles on our site <https://mynation.net/>, which can be found in below URLs

Equality, Justice and Harmony

We fight for Equality among gender, Justice to all and Family Harmony

We have the same Articles uploaded and available to readers. Anyone can read and Judge what the truth is and what SSRN is trying hard to hide or silence.

As per our understanding it is not willfully removed by SSRN, as this was previously peer reviewed and accepted for publication Articles by them only. Now they have taken the extreme step of deleting by labeling it baseless, inflammatory, rhetoric articles. If these articles are baseless inflammatory rhetoric then why were they approved and published in the first place?. And all of a sudden how did they find that all these are baseless? For sure they are influenced by someone and it can be none other than the Feminists because only they have vested interests in the issues covered in these articles. Most of the articles openly exposes with valid data or media reports and other articles which affect false propaganda and money making business of these organizations.

It is not that SSRN wanted to remove, but they were forced to remove the articles. If vested Interested influenced SSRN to remove it then I have right to demand on what basis vested Interests have asked to remove it? Have they provided any proof of their claim? If SSRN failed to ask then, SSRN is part of the same Vested Interest, feminist lobby.

SSRN Please provide me the proof of my claims being BASELESS

Voice against vested Interests is always inflammatory, rhetoric and that's how feminist lobby term it. In our article, for every claim we have provided various proofs like NCRB data, Public Poll Data, mainstream media coverage and statements from the general Public, Victims of Legal Terrorism. If vested Interest call these articles as baseless, inflammatory, rhetoric and without any evidence, then it is another attempt to silence the Truth, Voice of the Voiceless.

In my mail to SSRN I requested “Please provide 2 or 3 examples from my articles where you have found the substance of inflammatory statements.” But for days now there is no reply from SSRN and neither do I expect any response from them coz they do not have any. This shows SSRN removed my articles on pressure from their masters, the Feminists. If SSRN had a moral responsibility they would have asked me to justify every word I wrote in the articles proving it baseless, inflammatory, rhetoric but instead like a coward they removed all peer reviewed and accepted publication Papers, the articles submitted but not reviewed by Peers and the Author Profile as well. That shows its not about baseless inflammatory rhetoric statements, it's about whom I write against. Which makes them so much afraid of my articles and me.
